The featured news article is titled "Boat Show Coming Soon to Ocean Marina" under the "COMMUNITY NEWS" category. The article text reads:

It will shortly be a joy for shipmates in Pattaya once again when a press conference was held on Tuesday at Ocean Marina Yacht Club in Na-Jomtien to announce about the upcoming International Boat Show. It was attended by Pattaya Deputy Mayor Ronnakit Aegasing and representatives from the Yacht Club. This annual and popular event will take place once again at the Ocean Marina from the 22nd to 24th November. Thailand has a well developed marine infrastructure with international standard marinas that caters for all sizes of yachts, quality yacht maintenance services and skilled craftsmen. Pattaya is a popular destination for marine tourists with many chartering yachts and enjoying surrounding cruising grounds and those of neighbouring countries. Ocean Marina Yacht Club provides a space of 2,600 square meters for marine and on shore performance to support more than 100 marine business operators and luxury real estate companies. The combined marine leisure tourism generates considerable revenue for Thailand. During the two days of the Boat Show, there will be over 100 exhibitors from marine, marine tourism and the leisure and lifestyle business sectors, from Thailand and overseas. For visitors, of which approximately 3,000 enthusiasts are expected, there is a packed programme of onshore and on-water activities and entertainment planned, including free sailing trials, free kayak trials, lucky draws, cocktail parties, dragon boat races and a marina side beer garden and festival with live band.
