PATTAYA TOURIST COURT OFF TO SLOW BEGINNING

There has been a good amount of optimism in the sections of the court about the impact of the newly-established Pattaya Tourist Court. In fact, the "court" is somewhat of a misnomer.

It has been a good amount of optimism in the sections of the court about the impact of the newly-established Pattaya Tourist Court. In fact, the "court" is somewhat of a misnomer.

The new office, housing the court's legal advisory services, has opened in the courthouse premises on September 5. The general public is invited to help scrutinize the court's services for tourism operators, providing fair service for tourists, especially those returning soon from some countries.

Although there is a perception that the so-called tourist court is sitting idly to sort out tourist complaints and hand down sentences to villains, that is simply untrue. What is available at the moment is a legal advisory service, for civil and criminal matters, on the courthouse premises which is open during normal office hours, 8:30 am to 4:30 pm.
